Dear President Trump,

I am writing to you on behalf of Iranian Democracy front, a political movement representing Iranians committed to Freedom and Democracy in Iran.

Iran has always been a peaceful and friendly Nation. The regime that had ruled Iran since 1979, has not been the choice of Iranian people. We believe that the future of Iran must be decided by Iranians.

For a long time, Iranians have demonstrated their rejection of the Islamic Republic and showed their aspiration for a real regime change.

Mr. President you mentioned: "I want Iran to be a prosperous, great, and happy country, ...". To achieve these goals Iranians, need Freedom and Democracy that they are denied under the present regime. Any and all attempts have been made with this regime to change their attitude without any result.

Today, majority of Iranians, have chosen Prince Reza Pahlavi as the legitimate leader, for regime change and guide for the democratic transition.

Historically Iranians have been peaceful people. We are against all foreign military aggression.

Our demand is no war, no discussion with this regime, but support of the Iranian people in their struggle for Freedom, Democracy and Peace.

Sincerely,

Assadollah Nasre-Esfahani (former minister)
